

Sacred Ireland A Gathering of Soul

May 6th - 11th
September 9th - 14th
2026

Landscapes of Wisdom

A soul call brings us to Ireland.
The call of our soul and the soul of this sacred ancient land. A call to her many landscapes of wisdom.

Within Sligo's mystical landscapes, there is an ancient and eternal wisdom that flows through the ancestral, otherworld, earth, and cosmic energies. Wisdom to weave into the fabric of our lives.
Wisdom to celebrate and amplify the light we hold, the light that fuels our passion and creative spirit. The light that shines hope and possibility in our world.

Within Sligo's cultural landscape, there is a heritage of wisdom that flows through the tradition keepers: those who have woven this heritage into their music, artwork, and stories. A heritage of wisdom to weave into the fabric of our life landscapes.

If you hear the call, join us for this Gathering of Soul.

The Rhythm Of Our Days

Our days are full. Yet they hold a relaxed pace for lingering in sacred sites. For shared ceremony and individual meditation. For long walks on sandy beaches. For quiet contemplation wandering the cliffs just across the road from our B&B with a sweeping view of the Atlantic. For deep listening to ancestral voices.

This is the land and landscape of the Tuatha Dé, Ireland's indigenous spiritual ancestors. We will connect with them in ceremony on our first day together and they will be with us for the rest of our time as we gather in the sacred sites of stone circles, dolmens, cairns and portals.

Inspired by the land, nurtured through generations, and giving voice to the spiritual lives and stories of the people, the soul of Ireland's traditional music is very present here. We will spend an evening with Martin and Margaret, extraordinary musicians and storytellers.

We will also wander north to County Donegal to visit some of the weavers and artisans who manifest a sacred heritage in their craft and creations.
